Unlock the potential success of your research, scholarly and creative activities through the Productive Proposal Writing Series.

The Office of Research Productive Proposal Writing Series (PPW) is a comprehensive curriculum designed to educate chair-nominated WSU Faculty in all aspects of successful proposal development. These are exciting and informative sessions specially designed to stimulate enthusiasm for proposal development.

Productive Proposal Writing Series

2008-2009 Schedule

- September 18th 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 1: Overview of Proposal Writer's World

- October 2nd 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 2: Generating an Idea-Reviewing the Literature

- October 23rd 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 3: Finding Funding, Identifying and Addressing the Agency's Vision

- November 6th 9:00am-5:00pm
  - Session 4: “Write Winning Grants Seminar”

- November 20th 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 5: Program Managers & Reviewers—The Problem Statement

- December 4th 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 6: Administrative Details & Budgets

- January 22th 3:00-5:00pm
  - Session 7: Finishing Your Proposal, Developing Your Career

“Write Winning Grants Seminar”

Dr. Steven Russell, a proven grant mentor, will present this highly acclaimed one day seminar on Nov. 6th. All chair-nominated PPW participants are required to attend this full day seminar.

Video conferencing is available statewide at all WSU Regional or Extension sites.

All sessions are in the Office of Research Electronic Training Center (ETC) Neill Hall, 416.

Sponsored by the Office of Research and coordinated by the Office of Grant and Research Development.